Hello Members,

A huge thank you to all who entered the Holiday Show at St. Peters and made it happen. Your art is and will be enjoyed by many people now and as a contributing member of Oak Leaf Artist Guild in this new year. 53 pieces of art and all very interesting, well done and exciting to look at. A note of appreciation to the following volunteers: Annette McGarrahan, Kate Cuba, Anita Hockett, Liz Brannon, Karen Bruns, Bob Bruns, Lilah Contine and Ola Patty. Thanks also to others that volunteered, but were kept from it due to illness. The show will not come down until January 25, so go by and see the art while you still can.

Join us at our next meeting for an art swap meet and paint-in during the time remaining. Bring whatever art-related items you've got to swap and a painting you've been working on, paint supplies and reference materials. Thanks, Ola

Mark Your Calendars

Painting begins for the 2010 Augusta Plein Air event April 21 and ends with judging, auction and show on May 1, with many events scheduled in between. The attached document is a pdf file. If you have trouble viewing it, you may need to install Adobe Reader on your computer, or view it soon on the www.augusta-chamber.org website.

NEXT MEETING:

art stuff swap meet/paint-in

Bring a few of your unwanted spare art-related items for a swap at our next meeting. The best way to start the new year is to rid yourself of some extra stuff and bring home a few treasures in the process-for free! This could be paper, brushes, paint, palettes, books, instructional videos or DVD's, drawing pencils, charcoal, pastels, frames, etc. See you Thursday, January 14, at the St. Peters Community and Arts Center, 7-9pm.
