Next Meeting...

Don Thebeau will show us various drawing techniques at our next meeting this Thursday, 7 pm, November 11, at the St. Peters Community and Arts Center. Don is an accomplished artist, and has won many awards for his drawings. Bring a pad of paper, pencil and/or charcoal to participate in a "hands on" demonstration. Some supplies will be provided at the meeting. See you there.

Collage Workshop

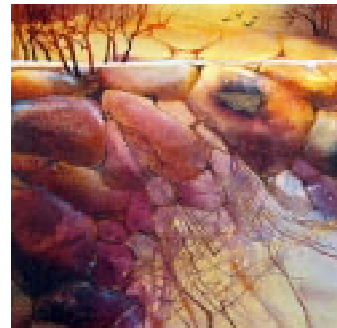

The class will paint collage papers: unryu, 140 lb arches, gauze, etc. the firstday of the workshop and create from them on the second day. Bring reference materials and ideas to share with the class if you have something special in mind. Golden fluid acrylics will be used as the painting medium. Some papers will be available for sale in the class.

Long time Oak Leaf member, Gloria Goellner, is currently residing at Parkside Meadows Retirement Community, 2150 Randolph St., Room #107, St. Charles, MO 63301, receiving rehabilitation. Send her a card if you can--it would most certainly raise her spirits to hear from her friends.

Congratulations to Oak Leaf member, Barbara Holder on her upcoming marriage to Ron Williams later this month. We're happy for you, Barb!

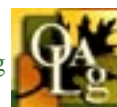

Art Center Moving to New Location

As many of you may already know, the St. Peters Community and Arts Center will be relocating to the St. Peters City Hall. The doors officially close on December 18th at the current location. Official renovations have already begun in the new space. Be sure to stay tuned for new details regarding our monthly meetings.
