Hello Members,

What a show all of you put on. 62 entries and everyone of them were beautiful works of art. Thanks to all the volunteers; they made the show work and look great.

Thankyou to Crystal Goldkamp for her watercolor demonstration at the Sept. meeting. For those who weren't there, Crystal showed her way of adding small details with simple strokes to watercolor and how certain brushes help with this technique. Several people tried Crystal's method of watercolor on paintings they entered in the show and remarked to me that they were pleased to know those tips.

Welcome two new members, Debbie Junge and Josh West. They entered the show-beautiful work-we look forward to seeing more of their art.

The next meeting, Oct. 8, we are so pleased to have Gene Stiens as the presenter. Gene's art is always different and his use of different materials for all of his art is magic-just wait until you hear and see his latest.

The December Show will be a time to share Christmas and winter-time scenes: sledding, snowball fights, portraits, family get togethers, animals in favorite coats and play scenes. It will be fun to see all the different pictures entered this year; the reception should be a sight for sore eyes. Look forward to seeing you there.

Ola
